

Media Links

Grief, waste and 'Loss Adjustment'

The journey of bereaved parent and author Linda Collins

<https://sg.news.yahoo.com/grief-waste-and-loss-adjustment-the-journey-of-bereaved-parent-and-author-linda-collins-163610265.html>

Mother's book about teenage daughter's suicide shows 'reality of suffering from a devastating loss'

<https://www.tnp.sg/news/singapore/mothers-book-about-teenage-daughters-suicide-shows-reality-suffering-devastating-loss>

Plumbing the depths of grief

In her first book, Linda Collins tries to come to grips with her daughter's suicide

<https://www.straitstimes.com/lifestyle/arts/plumbing-the-depths-of-grief>

When A Loved One Commits Suicide, How Do You Move On?

In Linda Collins' new book, she reflects on her 17-year-old daughter's suicide, and discusses the 'endemic' academic stress lurking in Singapore's education system.

<https://read-a.com/when-a-loved-one-commits-suicide-how-do-you-move-on/>

NZ Radio Interview with Nutters Club

Linda Collins speaks candidly and honestly about the loss of her beloved daughter Victoria and how opening the conversation about suicide has helped raise awareness on this taboo topic and can lead to more support understanding for those struggling with depression and mental illness.

<https://www.newstalkzb.co.nz/on-air/nutters-club/linda-collins-loss-adjustment-losing-a-daughter-to-suicide-part-1/>

<https://www.newstalkzb.co.nz/on-air/nutters-club/linda-collins-loss-adjustment-losing-a-daughter-to-suicide-part-2/>